

THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA

by Columbus brought enlightenment to the world. New fields of enlightenment in this century are in the lines of science. The triumph of conservative surgery is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or hernia, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, characteristically, but often induces inflammation, strangulation and death. TUMORS, Ovarian, Fibroid (uterine) and many others, are now removed without the use of the knife. PILE TUMORS, however large, Piles and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife. STONE in the bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and removed without cutting. STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. So far, the recent order of the Postoffice Department prohibiting the letter-carriers from the work-room at the Postoffice has only affected the few carriers who were doing clerical work at times. The carriers still classify their letters before going on their delivery rounds. Postmaster Dege has reported to the department how he is conducting his office in this particular, and is awaiting to hear what further change, if any, he must make.

WAS IT MURDER?

A White Woman Supposed to Be Killed by Negroes.

The constables of Norfolk county are engaged in unraveling the mysteries surrounding the death of the unfortunate white woman, Laura Ward, who was found on the Norfolk and Western railroad track Thursday morning about 1 o'clock in an unconscious condition. The woman was about 30 years of age, came to Norfolk from North Carolina a few months ago and has been living at the house of a negro man named James Ferebee, who worked in a brick yard in Barboursville. An old negro woman walking down the railroad track Wednesday night discovered Laura Ward lying on the track in the rain. She notified persons living near and the woman was taken to Ferebee's house, where she soon died.

An inquest was held by the county authorities yesterday and foul play so strongly indicated that the arrest was made of Henry Newby, Ed. Ferebee and Mary Wilson, colored inmates of the house in which Laura Ward had been living.

Dr. Wright examined the body and found it cut about an inch long just back of and above the left ear, which he thinks was dealt with some heavy instrument and caused her death. All of the accused testify that the woman left the house about 9 o'clock, which was an unusual thing for her to do. It is believed that they followed the woman and deliberately murdered her.

Ferebee said the woman had been living with them only a week, but it is known she has been living with them some time, and about three months ago gave birth to a child, whose whereabouts none of them seem to know.

Justice Hawkes says he will see that the affair is investigated to the bottom.

The coroner's jury will meet again this morning and will further investigate the circumstances attending the death of the Ward woman. The negroes arrested are confined in jail.

A Strange Case.

At the St. Vincent's Hospital there is a patient who for the last nine weeks—except an interval of about twenty minutes—has been apparently asleep, and it is considered a very strange case. His name is Carl Carlson, about 28 years of age, who was sent here from Newport News on October 19th, 1894, suffering from insanity, his mental trouble being along a religious line. After remaining at the hospital for a few weeks he apparently dropped asleep, and except during the interval referred to, has remained asleep. He is fed with milk through a tube inserted in his nose. He was formerly connected with the Salvation Army.

"THE FINAL JUDGMENT"

Subject of Father O'Kane's Address Last Night.

AN ELOQUENT DISCOURSE.

Self-Examination Urged Upon His Hearers. The Preparation in Life for the Hereafter Vividly Presented. Attendance at the Chapel.

At the Chapel of the Sacred Heart yesterday morning Rev. Father Hummillo spoke on "Faith," and at night Rev. Father O'Kane chose for his subject the words of Holy Scripture: "It is appointed for all men once to die and after this the judgment."

"Too prone are we," said the Reverend Father, "to regard the temporal things of this life only, not heeding repeated warnings and rushing madly on to our doom without making our peace with God."

"Lost, absorbed in the transient events of the moment, the great beyond sinks to a secondary place, and we defer that examination of ourselves which would make us safe for eternity."

"Let us make this examination conscious of the fact that we are by it, preparing for an eternity of weal or woe. It is beyond human power to remember all the events of our life, but upon the soul they are indelibly impressed, and some time, when a person is dying or in a moment of imminent peril, all the events of life suddenly flash into memory and stand out vividly before the dying gaze, affording in mercy the last opportunity for repentance."

"Some, however, do not care for self-examination. Upon their souls are spots of sin which they would not have revealed for worlds, and yet they do not consider that at the last judgment all secrets will be rendered before all men gathered in the presence of the King."

"They defer that examination of self and that confessing of sin which would otherwise save their souls and win for them a crown of glory in that day."

"A few days ago we celebrated the humble entrance into this world of the Savior of mankind. But at that last day he will come again, not in the feebleness of infancy, but in all the pomp and majesty of his divinity. And the nations shall stand before him and the just judge will weigh each man according to his works."

"Satan will be there also and he will claim his own. Among those placed in eternal disgrace upon the King's left hand may be those whom you, by precept or example, have led astray. Rest assured, indifferent man, that they will appear against you in that dread hour. And yet all this may be obviated by an earnest observance of Divine injunctions. While there is life we can make atonement—the precious blood of Christ can cleanse us. Let us then, friends, improve the opportunity. Let us judge ourselves and rectify our faults while there is yet time."

BRAMBLETON.

There will be an oyster supper given at the residence of Mr. N. T. Bailey, 6 Hamlin avenue, to-night on behalf of Spurgeon Memorial Baptist Church. All cordially invited.

Mr. Martin, a prominent gentleman residing in the vicinity of Queen street bridge, had a difficulty with a number of boys yesterday living in that vicinity, leading to the issuing of warrants by Justice Gregory for their arrest. The matter will be investigated in the Police Court this morning.

The Fidelity Society of McKendree will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Young Peoples' Union of the Park Avenue Baptist Church will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting to-night at 8 o'clock. All members and friends are especially invited to be present.

ATLANTIC CITY.

Mrs. D. C. Cox, of Avenue A, is visiting friends at Sewell's Point.

Mr. Daugherty, Fort street, was reported improved in his condition yesterday.

Mr. R. L. Holland, has purchased the stock of goods and stall fixtures formerly owned by Mr. J. C. Vaughan, Colley avenue, where he will conduct business in the future.

Mrs. Chas. Whitehurst is at home again, Fort street, after spending several days with Mrs. Maj. Walker, Lake Lawson.

Owing to the very inclement weather of yesterday, the meeting of the W. C. T. U. was postponed until next Friday afternoon.
